

as a backbone of the organization to ensure all aspects of the business are process-oriented and hence efficient; or c) proactively looking after the company's channel partners, vendors and employees at times when they undergo personal or professional crises.

Creating your Coffee Can Portfolio today

Having discussed the virtues of the Coffee Can Portfolio, if today (in August 2017) one were to screen the entire spectrum of listed companies with market cap greater than Rs 100 crore using our twin filters of revenue growth (or loan book growth for banks) and profitability every year over FY07–17, we get a list of twelve stocks mentioned in the exhibit below.