

2. Four stages of economic cycle are depression, recovery, boom and recession.
3. Investors should determine the stage of the economic cycle before investing. Investors should disinvest just before or during a boom.