Ask your older loved ones what makes them truly happy and write down their responses. Ask for details: If they say, "Being around family," do they love seeing family at home or in other settings? How often? What was their most amazing memory from the last year?

Think back on your most memorable moment with your family in the last year. Use three words to describe how you felt in that moment.

1

2

3