

“Life is not a Disney movie—nobody’s coming to save us. When we finally internalize this hard truth, we can start to build confidence and take control of our lives.”