

1. you are saving about 10–15 per cent of your take-home salary towards your retirement;
2. at age thirty, if you have zero retirement money, you start saving 30 per cent of your post-tax income; at age forty 40 per cent; and at age fifty 80 per cent of your income;
3. you are targeting a retirement kitty that is between eighteen and thirty-five times your annual spending at age sixty;
4. by age forty you have three times your annual income as a retirement kitty, by age fifty six times your annual income and by age sixty-eight times your annual salary as your retirement kitty.