

Five Steps to Financial Wellbeing

which can really help with your understanding of the relationship between how you work, how you earn, and how you feel about money.

Your worth is not defined by:

- How much money you have in the bank
- The balance on your credit card
- The number on the scales
- How much you earn
- How many times a week you exercise
- How many emails you sent today
- Any other number

Is constantly striving for more doing us more harm than good?

'Since these conveniences by becoming habitual had almost entirely ceased to be enjoyable, and at the same time degenerated into true needs, it became much more cruel to be deprived of them than to possess them was sweet, and men were unhappy to lose them without being happy to possess them.'

Jean-Jacques Rousseau

Even within a system that is constantly pelting us with non-verbal cues that we need to know our place and be happy with
