

Consider whether these are material things, or things that can be bought with cash, or whether there are other things that you want to work on too. Figure out the role that you want money to play in your life now, and in your future, and you're well on your way to a better sense of financial wellbeing. I'll meet you in Step Three.

Actions for Step Two

- ☐ Let go of your ideas about how 'good' or 'bad' you are with money.
- ☐ Identify where setting boundaries will allow you to find financial wellbeing more easily.
- ☐ Communicate those boundaries to the people who need to be made aware, reinforcing them if and when necessary.
- ☐ Reframe your ideas about generosity – it's not always about a gift or expensive gesture.
- ☐ Learn to understand, accept and overcome your feelings of envy.
- ☐ Start to see money as a tool, not the end goal.
