

Actions for Step Three

As the most practical step in this journey, it's important to allow yourself enough time to take some solid actions based on what we've covered in Step Three.

- ☐ Make a list of the money habits that you'd like to break.
- ☐ Make a list of new habits that you'd like to form, based around the five areas explored in Step Three.
- ☐ Get yourself an accountability partner.
- ☐ Make your old habits invisible, unattractive, difficult and unsatisfying.
- ☐ Make your new habits visible, attractive, easy and satisfying.
- ☐ Devise ways to track your habits and keep a paper trail.
- ☐ Approach your new financial habits from a self-care perspective.
