

Five Steps to Financial Wellbeing

- envy 110–13, 135
- consolidation loans 53
- Consumed* (Barber) 195–6
- consumption 195–9
- Cosslett, Rhiannon Lucy 229
- counselling see therapy
- Covid-19 pandemic 186–7, 247
- credit 241–4, 246
- credit cards 53, 161, 162–3
 - clearing debt 164–5
- Currys PC World 118
- debt 2, 241–4, 246
 - staying on top of 147, 160–5
- delayed gratification 105
- domestic abuse 65, 126
- Doyle, Glennon 56–7, 58, 120, 181
- ebb and flow 244–5, 246
- emergency fund 225–6
- emergency plan 177–8
- Emmons, Robert 166
- emotional spending 183–90
- employment 93, 95–6, 98–9
- envy 110–13, 135
- equity loan 231–2
- ethical money 223–4
- exposure therapy 154–5
- financial abuse 65, 126
- financial coaching 73–5
- financial education 5–6, 239
- financial goals 219–22
- financial mistakes 22, 35–7, 81–2, 250
- catalogue of 52–4
- in context 38–41, 83
- dealing with external judgement 43–5
- guilt and apologies 49–51
- identifying 40–1
- learning from 48–9
- learning to trust yourself
 - again 54–60
- self-forgiveness 45–7
- stuck in the past 61–72, 83
- thinking differently 41–3
- financial past 61–72, 83, 250
- financial planning 215–17, 245–6, 252
- accepting ebb and flow 244–5
- goal setting 219–22
- lifestyle design 217–19