

Actions for Step One

For each of these five steps, there is a set of actions that you might like to complete in order to really get the most out of this journey and compound some of the theory that we've discussed. To make things extra satisfying, they are formatted as a checklist, so you can tick them off as you go.

- ☐ Put your financial mistakes into context – journal this out, if necessary.
- ☐ Make a list of the internal and external factors that influence or have influenced your relationship with money.
- ☐ Practice meditation for self-trust, and begin to have confidence in your ability to make good decisions.
- ☐ Identify any financial pain or trauma from your past, and look at how it affects your current behaviour.
- ☐ Find somebody to talk to – this could be a trusted friend, family member, partner or professional.
