

Preface

Choose your Life!!

Our lives are a sum total of the choices we have made.

— Wayne Dyer

When you have to make a choice and don't make it, that is in itself a choice.

— Anonymous

Here is an extract from the speech that I made during one of the leadership seminars on 22nd Nov 2007 after I joined IBM India as a software testing manager in 2006.

This was when my dream of financial freedom was just surfacing. I was never and am still not a very good speaker but since this was one of my favourite topics, I felt very comfortable speaking in front of a large audience that day.
