

the investment and the location. Remember that the rent and the appreciation in the price of the property are larger in locations where there are more job opportunities.

When I invested in real estate around 12 years back, I never had this strategy in mind. It was just by sheer chance that I timed a good investment, which has grown more than 7 times in the last 12 years. I have not even considered the returns it is going to give me once I decide to sell the same.

This kind of mortgage or loan or debt that creates an asset for you is also termed as "good debt" by many financial planners. This debt is good because this debt acts like an asset since it pays you more than it takes from you.
