

This is the level of risk that an individual or an organization is prepared to accept, before actions deemed necessary to reduce the risk.

27. Nest Egg

The accumulated target amount that triggers key goals e.g., the total amount required to be accumulated to trigger financial freedom.

28. Base Lending Rate

The rate at which banks borrow money from the Reserve Bank of India or other similar central banks in their respective countries. Banks lend this money to their customers and earn from the interest on that money.

29. Lock in Period

The time period for which the investment is blocked and cannot be withdrawn or re-invested.

30. EEE Tax Regime

EEE stands for Exempt-Exempt- Exempt which means that your investments, interest accrued and your withdrawals are all exempt from taxes.

31. EPF Office (EPFO)

A statutory body of the Government of India. It administers a compulsory contributory provident fund scheme, pension scheme and an insurance scheme. It is one of the largest social security organizations in the world in terms of the number of covered beneficiaries and the volume of financial transactions undertaken.

32. Insurance Premium

Charges to be paid upfront or in instalments, in exchange for a certain type and amount of coverage for a specified time period.

33. Section 80C

While exemptions are on income, some deduction in calculation of taxable income is allowed for certain payments. Section 80C of