

FURTHER READING

If you've read through this entire tome, congratulations! You have all the basic information you need to have a prosperous financial life. If you are a glutton for punishment, below are some very selective recommendations. These are the books I would tell my friends to read if they wanted to know more about various topics. I have also included magazines, web pages, and pamphlets that may interest you. Some of the publications listed here are mentioned in the individual chapters, while others are not.
