

Keeping up with CURRENCY

BEFORE THE INVENTION OF MONEY, PEOPLE USED TO BARTER OR EXCHANGE GOODS AND SERVICES WITH ONE ANOTHER. THIS DEPENDED ON EACH PERSON IN THE TRANSACTION HAVING SOMETHING THE OTHER WANTED. TO GET AROUND THIS, THEY NEEDED TO FIND SOMETHING THAT WOULD BE ACCEPTED BY EVERYBODY AS HAVING WORTH, A CURRENCY, THAT THEY COULD USE TO BUY AND SELL THINGS.