

ONLINE PAYMENT

Many companies now do business through the internet rather than in stores. You can order all kinds of goods and services online and have them delivered to your home. These can be paid for by debit or credit card, or by transferring money electronically from your bank account using an online payment company such as PayPal.

See also: What is MONEY? | CRYPTOCURRENCIES