

6. Excess fees (not getting what you pay for).
7. Not managing or recognizing risk.
8. Trusting the wrong people.
9. Capital gains taxes management.
10. Arrogance and a lack of humility.

The behaviors that fall into this rubric cover nearly every error I have witnessed in three decades working with investors, traders, brokers, fund managers, and clients. In the next few chapters, we will use real-life examples. See how many of the above examples of behavior you can spot.

What if I told you a family of billionaires hit such an unlucky streak of nearly all of the above mistakes that it almost wiped them out? Read on to learn about the trifecta from hell.
