

revenue, earnings, trading characteristics, etc. Canvas allows that sort of granularity.

423 Special thanks to Ari Rosenbaum, who helped me analyze the specific data around the tax issues for RWM clients; and to Patrick O'Shaughnessy, who has been the driving force of Canvas, and has continually helped to incorporate new features and services for Canvas.

424 I want to emphasize that no one should ever count on 475 basis points in TLH.

425 The Stance Sustainable Beta ETF (STSB) is similar, and the ETF they issue is an environmentally and socially conscious fund.

426 I was a seed investor with Eric Golden when he launched Canopy; The Compound Capital, RWM's fintech fund, is also an investor.
