

a higher interest rate on a huge purchase like a house can add up to hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Don't make the same mistakes I did. If you do find yourself in a position where you are having trouble paying your bills, do not ignore them. Speak to your lenders and explore the options you have. A short, uncomfortable phone call can save your credit history and literally save you thousands of dollars.