

Canberra

Material Pleasures

3 Barrier Street

Fyshwick

materialpleasures.com.au

Formerly a market-based business, shopping here beats rising at the crack of dawn to secure the best buys. The owners look for contemporary items more than true vintage, so this is an ideal introduction to buying recycled fashion for someone who has been overwhelmed by the crush of stock and the musty aroma of other thrift stores. Material Pleasures has an exhaustive list of brands it will accept on consignment and, unlike some that only take highest-end garb, this is one of the few pre-loved boutiques that will on-sell mid-range favourites like Sportsgirl, Topshop, Trenery and Nine West alongside fancier Loewe, Chloé, Mulberry and Marni. Payment, once your goods sell on their racks, is by store credit or direct bank deposit.

Adelaide

Marilyn's Depot Vente

24A O'Connell Street

North Adelaide

Marilyn's does not have a web store but you can 'like' their Facebook page for a drop on what's in stock – it'll be treasures at a variety of price points, from brands like Seed, Metalicus and Mimco, to Aje, Zimmermann, Willow, Lisa Ho, Lanvin, Rick Owens and Maison Scotch. The Facebook feed presents freshly deposited pieces styled together – handy for shoppers who are novices at second-hand and are intimidated by how to make a vintage assortment work as an outfit.

Designer Exchange

140B King William Road

Hyde Park

Instagram: @designer_exchange

Old Gucci, Rochas, Céline and Valentino sit alongside new pieces from smaller, more obscure labels such as Anannasa, OnceWas, Isara and