

Talisman; buying here is a study in how to blend vintage with current clothes. The new collections have a youthful, bohemian vibe and the European designer garb often includes basics like sandals, heels, coats, frocks, tees and cardigans. Among past finds, a pair of cult Valentino Rockstud ballet flats for $220, against $900 plus for new from the likes of Net-a-Porter.

This store stocks the really fancy stuff – Jimmy Choo, Givenchy, Miu Miu, Prada, Hermès, Chanel, Louis Vuitton, Louboutin, Swarovski – across bags, jewellery, shoes, sunglasses and clothes. The cult styles are here, and you'll recognise many as the must-have bags from previous seasons, as prescribed by the glossy magazines. Shoppers with high-end tastes come here to turn over their wardrobes, fund a new purchase or make some extra money. Keep informed with their Facebook page.
