

Source: Interview with Paul Donegan and Jane-Frances Kelly, ABC
Radio National Life Matters program, 3 March 2015

When you do the sums on a potential home loan, pencil in a second column of expenses that the property would entail. You should do this for each property on your wish/inspection list. Factor in the weekly cost of petrol, parking and, if you are a couple or a family, running a second car (loan repayments, insurance, registration, repairs).