

Zucchini spaghetti with bolognese sauce

For this recipe, you'll need a vegetable spiral maker. I bought mine at Kmart for $15.

3 large zucchinis

Olive oil

1 brown onion, chopped finely

1 clove garlic, crushed

500 g pork and veal mince

1 x 700 g bottle of Italian passata, or 1 x 400 g jar of Jamie Oliver

Italian Red Wine Pasta Sauce

2 teaspoons dried Italian herb mix

Fresh parsley, torn

Handful of shaved parmesan

Create thin, spaghetti-like strings of zucchini using a vegetable spiral maker. Heat the oil in a saucepan over a medium heat. Fry the onion and garlic until onion is translucent. Add the mince and brown over a high heat. Add the passata or sauce and the dried Italian herbs. Simmer over a very low heat for 1 hour. Add the sauce to bowls of the raw zucchini spaghetti and serve with parsley and parmesan.
