

Lemon yoghurt baked chicken with tomato, onion and mint salad

500 g plain Greek yoghurt
2 lemons
Pinch of garlic powder
Salt and pepper
500 g chicken breast fillets (about 2 fillets)

Salad

2 red onions, sliced
2 punnets cherry tomatoes, halved
Bunch of fresh mint, torn
Olive oil

Preheat oven to 180°C. Combine yoghurt, juice of 1 lemon, garlic powder and salt and pepper to taste in a large bowl. Slice chicken breasts in half to reduce cooking time, coat in the yoghurt mixture and place in the fridge for 1 hour. Top each chicken breast with a slice of lemon and bake on a greased tray for 20 minutes, or until golden. Meanwhile, make the salad. Combine onions, tomatoes and mint in a salad bowl and drizzle with olive oil. Serve with the baked chicken.
