

Should he play, forfeit, or resign the game?

In business, as in chess, the final choice always and inevitably depends on the most important of all factors in any situation—the judgment of the individual concerned.

Possible—or impossible? When you are in business, it's up to you to decide.